Discord (the game's official networking system) can also provide a way for players to meet in game if they have a common goal, but be forewarned that it also provides for some very despicable players to meet their own goals, and there is no way to control who will be invited (unless you are playing with friends only). Combat Dodge (CD) is a simple class where you dodge automatically and hit whatever you want. The name comes from these attributes. 1) Undetectable/Reactive 2) Self-buffering 3) Auto-aim/hoclip 4) Combat Low/No Impact 5) Can be brought by weapon/armor, user items Attacking the computer is not as effective as it sounds because combat dodge does not give you much control over your evasion, except maybe for the half-second before you are forced to react. Freeze Dodge (FD) is a similar, but more complex class. It is the same as combat dodge, but with the following differences. 1) Detachable/moveable 2) Can use special-attack
